Naples, July 28.

THE King, as an Act of Clemency, has conſented to the Return of the Biſhop of Nola to his Archbiſhoprick, and has charged the Delegate of his Juriſdiction, to renew his Inſinuations to the Prelates of the Kingdom, to caution the Curates of their reſpective Pariſhes not to marry any Military Officers in his Service, under Pain of incurring his Diſpleaſure. His Majeſty has appointed the Counſellor d'Andrea to be Judge Delegate for the Differencies between his Courtiers and Servants.

Rome, Aug. 1. A few Days ago the Chevalier Cappello, the Venetian Ambaſſador to the Pope, together with his Lady and Family, agreeably to the repeated Orders from his Senate, departed from this City on his Return, by Way of Viterbo and Florence, to Venice. On the 20th paſt Count Moneſtarolo, Miniſter from the King of Sardinia to that of Naples, ſet out from hence thither, to take upon him that Charge; as did, on the 21ſt, the Marquis de Milleſimo, on his Return from Naples to Turin, having executed his Commiſſion at that Court on the Part of the Duke of Savoy. The ſame Day the French Ambaſſador came to this City from Fraſcati, and had a long private Audience of the Pope, relating to the Diſagreements between the Senate of Venice, the Court of Vienna, and the Pope, about the Patriarcate of Aquileja. On the 23d the Pope held a Conſiſtory, in which he appointed Cardinal Barni to be Legate of Ferrara, Cardinal Bolognetti to be Legate of Ravenna, and confirmed Cardinal Doria in the Legation of Bologna.

Genoa, Aug. 1. The Maſter of a French Pink arrived here from Algiers reports, that before his Departure from that Place, twelve Xebeck Corſairs ſailed from thence on a Cruize; that they ſeparated as ſoon as they got out of Port; but that he knew not what Courſe they had ſteered.

Florence, Aug. 4. Laſt Week ſailed from Leghorne for Genoa, the Emperor's Ship the Lyon, to eſcort to Leghorne the Tuniſine Xebeck, which that Government has given up to the Emperor, and which is to be reſtored to the Bey of Tunis. On the 24th paſt in the Evening, Count Richecourt returned to this City from Leghorne, whither he had been to give Orders for the final Departure of the Emperor's new Men of War which are in that Port. Agreeable to the Emperor's Directions to compleat the two Companies of his Life Guard, called la Garde Noble, fifteen Italian young Gentlemen were laſt Week inliſted in the ſaid Companies; and Diſpoſitions are making for the remounting the whole Guard. On the 28th at Night, the Chevalier Cappello, the late Venetian Ambaſſador to the Pope, his Lady and Family, arrived here from Rome, on his Journey to Venice.

Warſaw, Aug. 5. On Monday laſt, being the King's Birth-Day, and alſo the Anniverſary of the Inſtitution of the Order of the Black Eagle, the ſame was pronounced to the People in the Morning by a Diſcharge of the Artillery. Towards Noon all the Knights of that Order, who were in Town, waited on the King in his Cloſet, in their proper Habits; and having complimented him on his Birth-Day, his Majeſty was pleaſed to make a Promotion of the following new Knights, viz. M. Szoldrski, Palatine of Ynowladiſlaw, and General of Great Poland; the Prince of Radzivie, Palatine of Nowogrodeck; Meſſ. Gurouwski, Czerny, Sollohub, and Grabowki, Caſtellans of Poſnania, Woyniz, Witebsk, and Dantzick; the Baron de Weſſenberg, Great Maſter of the Queen's Houſhold; Count Potocki, Crown Carver; and Prince Lubomirski, Cown General. After the King had inveſted the new Knights with the Habits of the Order, his Majeſty appeared in Publick, and received the Compliments of the Senate, the Nobility, and Foreign Miniſters; after which the King gave a grand Entertainment, the Knights of the Order of the Black Eagle being admitted to dine at his Majeſty's Table; four other Tables being prepared for the Nobility and Foreign Miniſters. Yeſterday, being the Day appointed for the Opening of the Extraordinary Dyet, their Majeſties repaired to the Collegiate Church of St. John, and heard Maſs celebrated Pontifically by the Biſhop of Cracow; after which his Majeſty went to the Senate-houſe, and opened the Dyet with the uſual Formalities.

Vienna, Aug. 8. Count Chriſtiani, Great Chancellor of the Milaneze, arrived here on the 6th Inſtant from Italy, in order to lay before her Imperial Majeſty the State of her Affairs in Lombardy, and particularly of her Finances; and Count Harrach, Governor General of that Dutchy, is expected here next Month. Preparations are ſtill making for the Court's Departure for Bohemia, Part of their Imperial Majeſty's Baggage being already ſent away.

Stockholm, Aug. 11. Since the Permiſſion which was granted for ſending Corn from Livonia into Foreign Countries, on Account of their plentiful Crops this Year, ſeveral Veſſels are gone thither from different Ports of this Kingdom, in order to take in their Loading of that Commodity at Riga and Revel.

Hambourg, Aug. 12. By Letters from Warſaw we are informed, that the Palatine of Podolia, Count Rzewuski, had juſt given a very remarkable Inſtance of Zeal for the Good of his his Country, in having reſigned, into the King's Hands, his Dignity of Palatine, and renounced his Rank as ſuch amongſt the firſt Senators of the Kingdom, that he might return to the Equeſtrian Order, and be one of the Nuncio's at the enſuing extraordinary Dyet; an uncommon and ſingular Example. This Nobleman having already had the Happineſs of being inveſted with the Dignity of Marſhal to the Dyet of Pacification in the Year 1736, and then greatly contributed, by his Capacity, to the Succeſs of it, will eaſily reunite the Votes for his Election in the ſame Quality, at the approaching Dyet.

Berlin, Aug. 15. On the 11th Inſtant in the Evening the King came hither from Potzdam; and the next Day his Majeſty, accompanied by the Margrave of Bareith, and ſeveral General Officers, reviewed the Troops in Garriſon in this City. After which his Majeſty returned to the Caſtle, and gave Audience to ſome Foreign Miniſters. On the 13th his Majeſty attended the Margrave into the Suburbs, to ſee the different Manufacturies of Silks and Stuffs that are eſtabliſhed and carrying on there; with which they ſeemed greatly pleaſed, and gave ſeveral Sums amongſt the Workmen for their Encouragement; and Yeſterday his Majeſty, accompanied by the Margrave and Margravine of Bareith, and all the Royal Family, and attended by the whole Court, ſet out for Charlottenbourg, where they propoſe to ſpend ſome Days in partaking of the Diverſions of that Place.

Bruſſels, Aug. 17. Prince Charles of Lorrain, Governor General of theſe Provinces, is expected at Namur on Thurſday next, and 'tis believed will reach this City on the Saturday following; at whoſe Arrival 'tis imagined M. de Wit, Preſident of the Chamber of Accompts, will be declared Treaſurer General of the Finances. An additional Duty has been laid on all Stamp Paper and Parchment in Brabant, the Produce of which is to be employed to diſcharge the Sum of 1600,000 Florins which the States of that Province have negociated. Notwithſtanding we have very fine Crops of Corn this Year, the Price of that Commodity keeps pretty high, occaſioned by the large Quantity that has been ſent out of this Country, particularly towards the Frontiers of France. A great Number of the Nobility and Gentry of this Country are already arrived in this City, and others are almoſt continually coming in, to wait the Arrival of Prince Charles of Lorrain, and to compliment him thereupon.

Hague, Aug. 21. The States of Holland have been ſummoned to meet on Wedneſday next, and the Prince Stadtholder is expected here by that Time, in order to aſſiſt at their Aſſembly. His Serene Highneſs has been a little indiſpoſed at Loo; but by the laſt Advices, his Illneſs had been attended with no bad Conſequences. The Prince has iſſued two Proclamations, the firſt dated the 3d Inſtant, N. S. for the Preſervation of the Game in this Province. The other is dated the 5th Inſtant, N. S. and relates to the Diſorders which have happened at Oudewater in this Province, in Conſequence of the Diſputes ariſen among the Magiſtrates; and his Highneſs orders by this Proclamation, that they ſhall be all diſmiſſed, and thoſe who are named in the Proclamation, eſtabliſhed in their Stead. This Proclamation is founded on the Reſolution of the States of Holland of the 21ſt of Sept. N. S. 1748, by which the Prince was authorized to change the Magiſtrates of all ſuch Towns as ſhould deſire it.
